A clean home run, the ball taking a neat bound over center-field fence, that scored two men ahead of him, and this followed a few inning afterwards by a bit of fine infield work, when he put out two men and assisted the other in completing the triple play—the first pulled off here since Jake Wells turned the trick years ago—is the record that Joseph Cuddy, second baseman for Richmond, made yesterday when the Law-makers heat the Danville nine by the score of 15 to 3.

The home run came in the first inning, when two men were out and only one man had tallied. The fat and Jovial shortstop landed squarely on one that came from Collna's dingers and the sphere sailed far away against terra firma about five feet from the fence, near the house in center-field. Hahn and Zurlage both went after it, but, as though it had struck India rubber, the horsehide leaped up and scaled the fence beautifully. Anthony was on third and Shaffer on second when the ball leaped the boards.

"Take it easy, Joseph, old man," yelled the grand-stand and bleachers, and Joseph didn't forget to touch the sacks.

It was the first home run knocked here this season, and the first ball that has gone over the fence.

Triple Play Followed.

Triple Play Followed.

Triple Play Followed.

Ordinarily this would have been sufficient for one player in a game, but Cuddy wasn't satisfied, and when Danville-got two men on the bases in the seventh inning and there was no one out, he popped up with a triple play that so startled the fans that is was several minutes before they could get their breath back.

Colina, the twirler, started the inning by straightening out one of Still's benders. Then Reggy was soaked in the ribs and it looked bad for the home boys. Danville's rooters were getting busy with their voices to gay something when more out and assisted in killing the other one and this is the last time, so far as the old fans can recollect, that was pulled off until yesterday.

Danville Was Outplayed.

But Richmond outplayed Danville at every stage fof the game yesterday. Colina, the twirler for the Tobacconists, was found for the extremely unlucky number of thirteen hits and Colonel Still for the Lawmakers pitched an even game all the way through. In one inning he did allow the hits to be bunched, but after this the men who were wont to swat did not connect.

Benny, Blerman and Reggy for the visitors played rather a ragged game error and none of them hitting at all. The only two errors made by the Richmonders were made by Cuddy and both of them were in a nature excusable ones. And they were certainly forgotten after the good work he did with the stick and the triple play that he nulled off.

Rose was playing in left garden yesterday, and he played the position extremely well, and at the bat did fairly good. He walked in the first inning, worrying Colina out of his four balls. Reeve sacrificed nicely and Hicks got hit on the head.

Could Butt With His Head.

Could Butt With His Head.

Could Butt With His Mead.

About that lick that Hicks got on the top-knot, there is more to tell. He ducked to get away from an inshoot of the opposing pitcher, when the ball cracked him solidly on the head. The sphere rolled back to Colina in the box, and Hicks shook his crantum and walked to first base. Shaffer got one down that retired Hicks at second, and Rose scored a minute later. Ahthony landed safely because Reggy fumbled, and this it was that brought Rose over. Then Cuddy got busy with the willow for that fourbagger. two balls in almost the same place in right field yesterday afternoon, and both counted fo rthree bases.

PORTSMOUTH WINS AGAIN Took Second Game of the Series

From the Team at Norfolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PORISMOUTH, VA., May 25.—Portsmouth took the second game of the series from Norfolk to-day by a score of 5 to 3. Schuman pitched for Portsmouth, and with proper support would have shut out his opponents. The two errors made by the men behind him were responsible for two runs, and the other was the result of a wild fitch by himself. Leonard pitched a good game for Norfolk, but he was unfortunate in having hits and errors bunched on him in the seventh. The all-around brilliant work of both teams was the feature of the game. Schuman struck out ten men. Fully 2,000 people saw the game.

Sturdy Ithacans Three Lengths

(By Associated Press.)

BOSTON, MASS., May 25.—Cornell won her second annual boat race with Harvard this afternoon by about three lengths. Harvard made a much better showing than in her last year's race with the Ithacans, when she met defeat by about seven lengths, but the sturdy Cornell men, when once they gained a slight lead, gradually increased the distance to the end of the course. The official time was: Cornell, 10:41 3-5; Harvard, 10:52; distance, one and seven-eighths miles.
